¹ 'The Socio-Economic Circumstances of Families Supporting a Child at Risk of Disability in Britain in 2002'. Lancaster University .Emerson, E. and Hatton, C. (2005) analysed the 2002 Families and Children Study using a broader definition of disability. Their results suggested that 10% of all children are disabled. This equates to just under 1.2 million children under the age of 17 in the UK.

² The Family Resource Survey 2005-2006, Office for National Statistics also estimates over 700,000 (7%) children under the age of 16 with an 'estimated longstanding illness, disability or infirmity that limits their activity'.

³ 'Living in Britain, Results from the 2002 General Household Survey', Office for National Statistics (2004) reports there are 770,000 (7%) disabled children in the UK.

⁴ 7% - rate of LDD prevalence found within the School Census (January 2011)

⁵ Entitled Disability Living Allowance cases aged 0-24. DWP - February 2011

⁶ Number of children in receipt of higher rate DLA has been used as a proxy indicator as recommended by the government (HM Treasury & DfES 2007). These children are by definition severely disabled with substantial care and/or mobility needs.

⁷ No. of Cases held (All Roles) at 20 October 2011

⁸ 1 in 13 disabled children based on school census as a proxy indicator in Central Bedfordshire would equate to 407
