NJC Job description

Central Bedfordshire

Job title:	Director of Children's Services
Directorate:	Children's Services
Section division:
Grade:
Date prepared:	March 2014
Reports to:	Chief Executive

Job purpose:

To ensure that Central Bedfordshire is a place where every child and young person has a great chance to succeed and where nobody is left behind, and where children and families are healthy, safe and achieve their full potential.

Main Accountabilities:

1. As part of the Corporate Management Team and working with partners, deliver the outcomes set out in the Medium Term Plan and the Children and Young People's Plan, driving the delivery of key priorities such as keeping children safe, tackling child poverty, improving access to childcare, improving educational attainment and improving pathways to employment.
2. Ensure the involvement and experiences of children and young people are accounted for in the delivery of Council services.
3. Ensuring effective child protection systems, ensuring that professional leadership and practice is robust and can be challenged appropriately on a regular basis. Developing and delivering appropriate strategies offering early help and prevention, in conjunction with partners.
4. Ensure the adequacy and effectiveness of local partnership arrangements (e.g. the Council's relationship with schools, the courts, children's trust co-operation arrangements, Community Safety Partnerships, Health and Wellbeing Boards, Youth Offending Team partnerships, Police, Probation, Multi-Agency Public Protection Arrangements and Multi-Agency Risk Assessment Conferences).
5. Work with colleagues to ensure that the safety and the educational, social and emotional needs of children and young people are given due priority and enable staff across the organisation to help the Council discharge our duties in an integrated and coherent way.

6. Develop the most effective models for discharging children's services functions, which deliver the best possible outcomes for children and young people and their families.
7. Working with headteachers, school governors and academy sponsors and others, support the drive for high educational standards for all children and young people, paying particular attention to the most disadvantaged groups, achieving top quartile performance in educational attainment.
8. Working with colleagues so that an integrated approach is taken to ensuring that school leavers are able to secure jobs, vocational training or further education. Lead, promote and create opportunities for co-operation with local partners (for example, health, police, schools, housing services, early years, youth justice, probation, higher and further education, and employers) to improve the well-being of children and young people.
9. Ensure that children's services are integrated across the Council, for example to support a smooth transition from children's to adults' services.
10. Involve and listen to parents, carers, children and young people.
11. Ensure that the local voluntary and community sector, charities, social enterprises, the private sector and children and young people themselves are included in the planning, commissioning and delivery of children's services where appropriate.
12. Establish local co-operation arrangements to reduce child poverty, prepare and publish a local child poverty needs assessment, and prepare a local child poverty strategy.
13. Together with colleagues including the Director of Adult Social Care, Health and Housing, and Director of Public Health, drive the development of the local Joint Strategic Needs Assessment (JSNA) and joint health and wellbeing strategy and help join up local commissioning plans for clinical and public health services with children's social care and education, where appropriate, to address the identified local needs through the JSNA and Joint Health and Wellbeing Strategy.
14. As a member of the Health and Wellbeing Board, to ensuring effective working relationships between the Health and Wellbeing board and the Local Safeguarding Children Board. Integrate the health system into key work streams in Children's Services and, with colleagues, across the Council.
15. Ensure that the Council complies with the duties set out in the Equality Act 2010; as well as ensuring that the Council does not discriminate unlawfully, also take into account the likely impact of policies and decisions on specified groups.
16. As the statutory Children's Officer, support and advise Members of the Council on all children's services matters; including reviewing the impact of national and local policies and developing strategic responses to them so that the council consistently meets its statutory obligations in respect of services to children & young people.

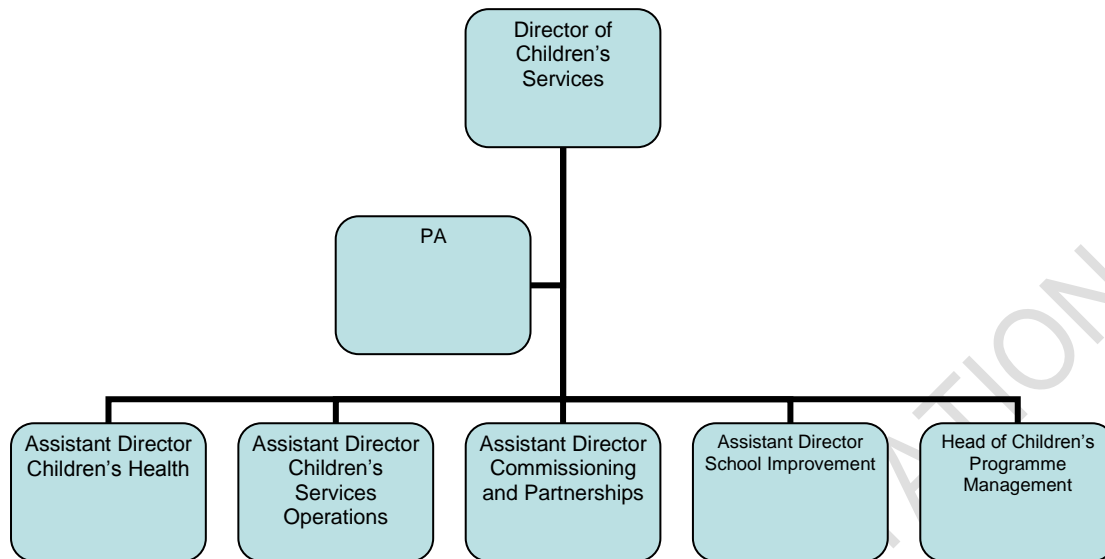

17. Ensure Central Bedfordshire's children and families benefit from excellent services, that the Council can afford, that will make Central Bedfordshire a 'great place to live and work'.

18. Lead staff through a journey of change, creating a climate which will enable them to be the best they can to deliver successful outcomes.
