

Central Bedfordshire Council wants to make day services as good as possible for older people and adults with disabilities.

Central Bedfordshire Council runs Ampthill Day Centre.

The Council think it can offer better options to Ampthill Day Centre customers so it is consulting on what should happen to Ampthill Day Centre.

By the term 'consulting' or 'consultation' the Council means asking people who use the day centre and others what they think about the Council's ideas. The Council collects this information to help make decisions.

The Council has looked at different options but it thinks the best option would be to have one main building for customers (the Council think this would be Silsoe Horticultural Centre) and other buildings to run activities from. This is called a 'Hub and Spoke'. The Council would then close Ampthill Day Centre.

It is a good idea to read the 'Have Your Say - Easier Read Version' document at the same time as you fill this survey in.

If you would like any help completing this survey or you would like a paper copy of any of the documents please contact Rebecca Carr on 0300 300 6609 or speak to a member of staff at the day centre.
